

Shall We or Shall We Not?

The Township Committee will take action at their next meeting on the petition for the passing of an ordinance providing for the holding of the election, to decide whether we shall adopt the new form of township government or hold to the old. We believe there is no doubt that the ordinance will be passed and it will then be for the people to decide the matter for themselves.

It is hardly possible to overestimate the importance of this question to the inhabitants of the Township of Bloomfield. Here is a golden opportunity to provide ourselves with a charter so rich in beneficial provisions that no one would ever have dared to think of obtaining it for Bloomfield under the old system of special legislation. Members of the Legislature would have jocosely accused him of wanting the earth. East Orange, which has long been supposed to have obtained all the choicest fruits of special legislative favors has nothing that approaches it in completeness.

If the voters of the town could only be persuaded to study the provisions of the new law and take the trouble to vote, there would be no doubt as to the result, for the benefits and advantages are many, apparent, and real, the drawbacks few, uncertain and speculative. The great danger is that our citizens will not take the trouble to inform themselves in the first instance and neglect to register their opinions at the polls.

Let every property owner and lover of good government and public peace realize that a grave responsibility is resting upon them to act in this matter.

How They Stand.

From the Asbury Park Journal.

The attitude of the political press of New Jersey on temperance legislation may be summarized:

Republican newspapers are unanimously in favor of taking no backward step on the liquor question. The great majority urge even more stringent laws as soon as the party shall regain the Legislature.

Democratic papers near the river centers demand the repeal of the high license and local option law and urge that the fight that won the State for the Democratic party was made in the northern and eastern counties distinctly upon that issue. Per contra, the Democratic papers of South and West Jersey are clear and positive in their cry "Hands off the local option law, gentlemen, or we shall lose the State." Six or eight of the mossback substitutes for newspapers haven't made up their minds yet, for two reasons—lack of time and absence of mind. Some sheets are actually urging the holding of local option elections under the very law they so violently assailed last winter.

The third party press is in a dilemma. It would like to see the local option law repealed because it was a Republican measure, but it does not say so openly. They claim that the law is full of defects as a sieve of holes, yet two or three of them are strenuously advocating county elections under it before the Democratic Legislature repeals it—actually giving this as a reason for speedy action. The main plank in the Prohibition platform is temperance and is simply "Smash the Republican party." The individual contentions of each editor in attempts to conceal the real design would be tedious were they not so frequently blasphemous.

The Ex-Soldier will now Have a

Power Issue.

In speaking of some prospective Republican candidates for the Madison post office the Banner says: "Most conspicuous among these hungry and thirsty partisans for revenue only are to be seen the ex-soldier, who thinks the only qualification necessary for public office is the fact of his having carried a musket during the rebellion, and also the business man who seeks to loom his trade by having the office established in his store." The fact that a man "carried a musket during the rebellion" may be a thing to be envied at by Democratic organs of the Banner stripe, but many people in this country will rejoice that under the new administration this qualification will have vastly more weight than it has had under the old one which has now lapsed into a condition of innocuous desuetude.

Will President Cleveland come to Orange?

Newark Daily Advertiser.

There will be a flutter of excitement in the high society of Orange Mountain at the announcement that Mr. Cleveland may return to his native State when he leaves the White House, and take up his residence in some one of the Oranges. The rumor is a little incredible, but not absolutely so. New Jersey would welcome her son, distinguished by four years in the Presidential office, with dignity, if not with effusiveness. The beautiful and thoroughly admirable Mrs. Cleveland would be a welcome addition to New Jersey society, and she would undoubtedly enjoy the beautiful scenery and health-giving air of the Orange Mountain with relish. The ex-President and his good wife might go further and fare much worse.

Brooklyn's Statue of Beecher.

A cast is being moulded by J. Q. A. Ward at New York for the bronze statue of Henry Ward Beecher, which is to surmount the monument to the preacher in Prospect Park, Brooklyn. The granite pedestal will be nine feet high and have figures in bronze on each side. On the left will be a young negro woman reaching up to the plinth to lay a palm leaf at the feet of the friend of her race. On the right will be the figures of two white children, one of whom endeavors to place flowers on the plinth. The statue of Mr. Beecher will be eight feet six inches high and represent the preacher standing bareheaded, holding his familiar felt hat by his side in his right hand. He wears his usual cape overcoat unbuttoned, disclosing the coat and vest underneath. A plain cravat, knotted, is worn under the broad turn-down collar. Mr. Beecher's left hand falls by his side, and he looks slightly up, ahead and a little to the right. Mr. Ward's idea is to show the great preacher in his aspect as a publicist and citizen. He looks as if he were taking a walk in the park and had removed his hat but for the moment. The monument will cost about $35,000.

A Big Postal Business.

The annual report of the Third Assistant Postmaster-General shows that the total cost of the Postal Service for the last fiscal year, inclusive of amount earned by the subsidized Pacific railroad companies for mail transportation, was $58,126,004.

The postal and money order receipts amounted to $52,695,176, leaving a deficiency of $5,430,828. This deficiency is owing mainly, it is said, to the great extension of the free delivery service under a modification of the old law and the increase of the railway mail transportation. The special delivery system has grown considerably since the report of the previous year. So has the registry business. The total number of pieces of registered matter transmitted during the year was 13,677,169; of special delivery matter 1,424,400. The total number of articles of the various kinds of stamped paper emitted was 2,700,635,170, representing $50,636,331.

Statistics are given showing that in the cheapness of postage, the number of Post Offices, extent of mail routes, miles of service performed, postal revenue and postal expenditure, and number of letters and other pieces of mail matter transmitted in the mails the United States is now conspicuously ahead of every other nation in the world. The statistics of letters, etc., transmitted during the year, which are the most accurate statistics of the character ever published by the department, are as follows:

Letters mailed 1,769,800,000
Postal cards mailed 372,200,000
Newspapers and periodicals mailed 1,000,000,000
Pieces of 3d and 4th class matter 372,000,000
Total 3,574,000,000

The number of pieces mailed per capita upon the basis of population shown by the last census is 71. The Third Assistant makes, among others, the following recommendations: That in some of the larger cities the pneumatic tube or some equivalent underground system of transporting the mails be adopted; that the present contract for letter-sheet envelopes be rescinded; that all postage stamps, stamped envelopes, and other stamped paper issued by the department be manufactured by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing; that, as a substitute for the franking privilege, members of Congress have an annual allowance of money for the purchase of postage stamps with which to pay postage on speeches and other official matter sent by mail; and that if the rate of postage on letters be reduced to 1 cent, as has already been proposed in Congress, there be only two classes of mail matter recognized, namely, letters and all other matter now comprehended in the third and fourth classes, postage on which shall be uniform at 1 cent for every two ounces, and newspapers and periodicals at the rate now fixed—1 cent a pound.

Cut This Out and Wait.

Save this Monday morning, December 3rd, at 9 o'clock. Mr. Bennett, representing the assignees of six large wholesale firms that failed, hereby gives notice that they have hired for sixteen days the two large double buildings, 60 and 61 Broadway, New York, being an entire block, from the corner of Broadway to the corner of Nassau street, for the purpose of holding a large sale of goods, which will be consolidated into one monster grand assignee's sale, the largest sale of the kind at any one time either in Europe or America. The building has been closed for two weeks to arrange for this great consolidated assignee's sale. Everything will be sold at retail, at 50 per cent. less than actual cost, as the entire estate of these great bankrupt firms must be sold within eleven days. The stock consists of goods for men, women, boys, girls, and misses' suits and cloaks, dolls, toys, holiday goods, jewelry, watches, and more than 20,000 other goods we have not space to mention here. This monster consolidated assignee's sale will commence Monday morning, December 3rd, at 9 o'clock, and will last for eleven days, 60 and 61 Broadway, between Broadway and Third streets, New York City. As the building has been only hired for eleven days, everything will go off rapidly as a sale of such extraordinary magnitude will positively never occur again. We call special attention to the following tremendous bargains in Men's Goods, but beg to mention all the goods and jewelry, toys, holiday goods and jewelry, etc., sold equally as cheap as the Men's Goods.
